IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF MASSACHUSETTS

CONSERVATION LAW FOUNDATION, Inc.,) Plaintiff,)
v.) Case 1:16-cv-11950 (MLW)
EXXON MOBIL CORPORATION, EXXONMOBIL OIL CORPORATION, and EXXONMOBIL PIPELINE COMPANY,))) Defendants.))

MOTION TO STAY

Defendants Exxon Mobil Corporation, ExxonMobil Oil Corporation and ExxonMobil Pipeline Company (collectively, "ExxonMobil"), hereby move the Court to enter a stay pursuant to the doctrine of primary jurisdiction, pending a decision by the Environmental Protection Agency ("EPA") on ExxonMobil's pending permit renewal application for the Everett Terminal, which is likely to resolve most, if not all, of the disputed issues in this case. Such issues are best resolved by EPA in first instance because (i) Congress delegated authority and discretion to EPA to assess environmental risks and establish conditions for National Pollutant Discharge Elimination System ("NPDES") permits in Massachusetts, (ii) the claims asserted by the Conservation Law Foundation, Inc. ("CLF") require resolution of technical and policy-laden questions of first impression, within the special competency and expertise of EPA, (iii) allowing EPA to resolve this question would promote uniformity in the NPDES permitting regime, and

(iv) a decision by EPA on the permit renewal application would aid the Court. Moreover, granting a stay will not unduly prejudice CLF.

In support of this Motion, ExxonMobil respectfully directs the Court's attention to ExxonMobil's Memorandum of Law in Support of Its Motion to Stay Pursuant to the Doctrine of Primary Jurisdiction and supporting Declaration, filed herewith, and to any additional arguments that may be properly presented in support of the requested relief in this motion.
